

Residence Inn Billings, Montana Announces The Completion Of Multi-Million Dollar Renovation And Open House Ribbon Cutting!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Billings, MT Friday July 31, 2015

The Residence Inn Billings is celebrating the completion of a multi-million dollar renovation to all 92 suites, lobby, breakfast area, and library. A Ribbon cutting ceremony and celebration were held at yesterday, July 30 from 4:30 – 6:30 pm. With nearly 150 guests in attendance, Ginny Hart, the General Manager of the Residence Inn, Brenda Ehlenburg, the Director of Sales for the Residence Inn and Cathy Lockwood of the hotel's management company, Kinseth Hospitality Companies, shared their excitement about the renovation and how the newly renovated hotel will be an even better asset to the community. Guests were able to tour the renovated hotel, enjoy complimentary beverages and hors d'oeuvres, and have the rare opportunity to try out one of the Montana Segways. During the event, the hotel included an ice cream social to help raise funds for the "Give Kids the World" project.

If you were unable to attend the event and are interested in touring the newly renovated hotel and/or our meeting room please contact Brenda Ehlenburg, the Director of Sales.

Residence Inn

The Residence Inn Billings is conveniently located off I-90 on the West side of Billings and offers an outdoor patio area with grill and fireplace, basketball court, fitness center and an 800 sq./ft. meeting room. The Residence Inn Billings is designed for long stays and offers spacious suites with separate living and sleeping areas.
