Homewood Suites by Hilton Dillon Named Runner Up for Large Business of the Year at Summit County Colorado Annual Awards Banquet

Director of Sales Shawn Quam Also Nominated for Ben Fogle Chamber Champion of the Year Award

Dillon, Colorado — April 15, 2026

Kinseth Hospitality is proud to announce that Homewood Suites by Hilton Dillon has been named Runner Up for Large Business of the Year at the Summit County Colorado Annual Awards Banquet. This recognition is a direct reflection of the incredible team at the hotel, whose hard work, consistency, and genuine commitment to both guests and the Summit County community do not go unnoticed.

Kinseth Hospitality is also proud to celebrate Shawn Quam, Director of Sales at Homewood Suites by Hilton Dillon and Vue North, who was nominated for the prestigious Ben Fogle Chamber Champion of the Year Award. Shawn's dedication to the community, her active involvement, and her passion for making Summit County one of the best places to live and work truly set her apart as an extraordinary leader and community ambassador.

Every day, the team at Homewood Suites by Hilton Dillon demonstrates what it means to deliver hospitality with purpose — supporting local partnerships, creating memorable guest experiences, and representing the community the right way.

“This recognition is a direct reflection of the incredible team at the hotel. Their hard work, consistency, and genuine commitment to both our guests and the Summit County community do not go unnoticed,” said Michael Reyes, Regional Director of Sales, Kinseth Hospitality. “Every day, this team shows what it means to deliver hospitality with purpose, supporting local partnerships, creating memorable guest experiences, and representing our community the right way.”

Kinseth Hospitality extends its sincerest gratitude to the entire team for their continued effort and excellence. This achievement reflects the values that define the Kinseth brand: people-first hospitality, community engagement, and an unwavering commitment to quality.
